

Contractors Combined Insurance Policy Summary

Underwritten by a member of the QBE Insurance Group (QBE) (details are provided below)

This insurance is an annual contract unless stated otherwise and it may be renewed at the end of each policy year on the basis of the terms and conditions applicable upon renewal. For full details of the start date and end date of the policy, you should read the policy schedule.

This document provides only a summary of the main benefits your insurance policy. An outline of the policy's significant features and benefits are set out below together with any significant exclusions or limitations. For full details of all policy benefits and all terms you should read the policy.

The policy is divided into a number of sections but not all the sections may operate as part of your insurance. Please refer to your quotation or renewal documentation for confirmation of the sections of cover selected.

Limit of indemnity, sub-limit of indemnity, territorial limit and jurisdictional limit

This insurance is subject to an overall limit of indemnity, as well as various limits and sub-limits of indemnity which form part of and are not in addition to the overall limit of indemnity unless stated otherwise. There are also territorial and jurisdictional limits which apply to specific sections of this policy. Please refer to your policy schedule for confirmation of the applicable limits and territorial and jurisdictional limits.

Excess or deductible

Most cover sections will carry an 'excess' or 'deductible' being the first amount of each claim or occurrence that you must pay and is not covered by your insurance. The amount(s) will be stated in your quotation or renewal documentation or in the schedule, together with a qualification whether the amount will be applied per claim or per occurrence.

Conditions

You must:

- a) make a fair presentation of your risk in proposing for this insurance, including making disclosure in a comprehensive and accurate manner;
- b) notify us of claims and circumstances that may become a claim as soon as practical but always within the time limitation(s) stated in the policy;
- c) notify us of any and all material changes to the declared business activity or insured risks if you require them to be covered by this insurance; and
- d) comply with the general conditions and any specific conditions designed to reduce the risk of loss.
- e) comply with the Minimum Standards of Security that are a condition precedent to the theft cover.

Employers' Liability

Significant features and benefits

This section provides an indemnity for liability at law to compensate your employees following injury in the workplace.

Standard extensions include:

- Costs and expenses – expenses awarded against the insured or incurred in defence of a claim.
- Contractual liabilities – contractual obligations relating to injury to employees.

- Indemnity to principals – contractual obligations to indemnify the principals for their liabilities arising from your performance of the contract.
- Data Protection - valid compensation in respect of damage or distress under section 13 of Part II of the Data Protection Act 1998 ('DPA'), or any equivalent provision under any subsequent amending or replacement legislation; or material and non-material damage under Article 82 of the General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR') including associated defence costs, and defence costs in relation to a prosecution brought under the DPA, any subsequent amending or replacement legislation or the GDPR. This extension shall be subject to certain exclusions as detailed in the policy wording;
- Health & Safety defence costs – payment of costs to defend a prosecution under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 (Sections 2 to 8) when related to an employee injury.
- Statutory defence costs including corporate manslaughter and prosecution costs of £1,000,000.

Significant or unusual exclusions or limitations

The policy document contains a number of exclusions and limitations. The more significant exclusions applying that will bar any payment are listed below:

Employers' Liability Insurance excludes liability caused by:

- Injury arising from work on an offshore rig or other installation.

Public, Products and Pollution Liability

Significant features and benefits

This insurance provides an indemnity for liability at law to compensate third parties (not being employees) for bodily injury or property damage.

Standard extensions include:

- Accidental discovery of asbestos- liability arising following the accidental discovery of asbestos and related defence costs not exceeding £1,000,000.
- Costs – costs and expenses awarded against you or incurred in defence of a claim. Defence costs are generally payable in addition to the limit of indemnity (except for defence costs relating to claims brought in North America where such costs form part of the limit).
- Contractual liabilities – contractual obligations relating to injury to third parties.
- Indemnity to principals – contractual obligations to indemnify the principals for your liabilities arising from injury or property damage in your performance of the contract.
- Data Protection - valid compensation in respect of damage or distress under section 13 of Part II of the Data Protection Act 1998 ('DPA'), or any equivalent provision under any subsequent amending or replacement legislation; or material and non-material damage under Article 82 of the General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR') including associated defence costs, and defence costs in relation to a prosecution brought under the DPA, any subsequent amending or replacement legislation or the GDPR. This extension shall be subject to certain exclusions and subject to a sub-limit of indemnity as detailed in the policy wording;
- Health & Safety defence costs – payment of costs to defend a prosecution under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 contingent upon our prior consent so as to ensure that such costs are reasonable in the circumstances and related to an insured injury.

- g) Environmental damage - liability for remediation or preventative costs in respect of unintended, sudden and accidental environmental damage to third party property where liability arises under an EU environmental protection statute or statutory instrument.

Important Information

Insurance Act 2015

This policy has been amended to take account of the provisions of the Insurance Act 2015, and is intended to comply with them, unless otherwise stated by way of endorsement or in the schedule.

Your right to cancel

You may cancel this policy in accordance with the cancellation clause of this policy by giving written notice to your broker or to us quoting your policy number.

QBE may issue 21 days written notice of cancellation at any time by writing to your last known address when we will allow a pro rata refund of premium.

This termination will be without prejudice to your or our rights or claims incurred prior to the expiration of such notice. If a claim has been submitted or there has been any incident likely to give rise to a claim during the current period of insurance no refund for the unexpired portion of the premium will be given

Renewing your policy

If QBE are willing to invite renewal of the policy QBE will use best endeavours to tell you at least 21 days before the expiry of the policy the premium and terms and conditions which will apply for the following year.

Premium payment

The insured is liable to pay the premium as set out in the policy. For full details of payment of premium and the duration of payments of premium you should read the policy and the schedule.

Other restrictions

Certain endorsements that might apply to your policy may restrict cover. For full details you should read the policy documentation.

Underinsurance

We recognise that it can sometimes be difficult to work out the right amount for your sum insured. That's why we allow you a margin of error in your calculations for certain aspects of your policy.

- In the Property Section of your policy, there is an 85% Condition of Average Clause. If you are underinsured but the sum insured is more than 85% of the cost of reinstatement, we will pay 100% of the reinstatement cost. However, if the sum insured is less than 85% of the reinstatement cost, the amount that we pay you will be limited to the proportion which the sum insured bears to the reinstatement cost.
- In the Business Interruption Section of your policy, there is a 50% Condition of Average clause. If you are underinsured but the losses we calculate you sustained for gross fees, gross profit, gross revenue or rent receivable are less than 150% of the sum insured, we will still pay you 100% of any valid claim under this section of your policy. However, if the losses sustained for gross fees, gross profit, gross revenue or rent receivable are more than 150% of the sum insured, the amount that we pay you will be limited to the proportion which the sum insured bears to the Business Interruption element you insured with us.

For full details of Underinsurance and how we apply average clauses to claims payments, you should read the policy documentation.

Claim notification

Should you wish to make a claim you must notify QBE as soon as practical on receipt of any claim, suit or becoming aware of circumstances that is likely to lead to a claim. But please read your policy as specific time limits may apply for claim notification. You may contact QBE at the address shown below.
